

Inventors and Inventions (19th to 22nd March 2018)

We have talked about how inventors and inventions have changed our lives. We asked the children to tell us about the inventors they know and what they are famous for. Children told us the most important inventions which help us every day in the classroom; for example, the light bulb, the computer and even simple inventions such as the pen, pixel pictures and Rubik's cube.

